

INTERNATIONAL BUDDHIST CONFEDERATION

Collective Wisdom United Voice

International Buddhist Confederation invites to submit proposals

About IBC:

IBC (International Buddhist Confederation (IBC) represents the rich diversity of Buddhism and provides a platform for the global Buddhist community to share its wisdom and meaningfully participate in the ongoing global social and political discourse, while at the same time preserving and promoting its shared heritage.

Call for Proposal:

We have a small corpus fund that can be utilized under the following areas;

- a) Conservation, excavation, infrastructure development and promotion of heritage sites
- b) Promotion of local arts and crafts and cultural heritage
- c) Promoting holistic education and research on India's history and heritage
- d) Promoting cleanliness, sanitation and clean drinking water
- e) Partnering organizations towards environment and nature conservation
- f) Capacity building and skill development for employment generation
- g) Supporting social initiatives and inter-faith understanding
- h) Supporting communities in remote areas through education and health initiatives

IBC invites proposals from established, reputed and experienced organization, institutes, society, NGO etc who are undertaking the activities enlisted.

The proposal submitted should not be more than Rs 5 lakhs.

Interested bodies may visit IBC official website to understand Aim and Vision of IBC. The proposal should be submitted in a prescribed format given below and submit at secretariat@ibcworld.org latest by 29 March 2021.

Prescribed format for submitting the proposal

1. General Information

Name of Organisation:

Title of Project:

Area of Work:

Intended time:

Geographical area:

2. Rationale

3. Project Logic

Goal:

Targets groups:

Outcome or result:

Activities:

Change of effects:

4. Monitoring

Tools:

Indicators:

5. Miscellaneous

6. Budget